“Rejoice”

Matthew 7:7-8 "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened." ESV

I think there are three very heartening things that give strength or hope to our day.

(First) We are all admitting we need answers. That in itself is encouraging for the law shows we need a Saviour.

(Secondly) We are Asking—We are Seeking—We are Knocking. We are looking for answers, as Christians we know that God comes to us through Word and Sacraments.

(Thirdly) It is only God's Word that can be trusted to bring us God's answers when we ask, seek and knock. For the wonderful thing is that He is making certain we are receiving—and that we are finding—and that doors are being opened to us. Yes—God opens doors daily for each of us through His Word. Let us then Ask—Seek—Knock and Rejoice. Rejoicing, so in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

Therefore then—Rejoice and “Let Your Light Shine” so that “The Saving Gospel in Christ” be proclaimed to all people in all nations. “Bringing Christ To the Nations—and the Nations to the Church.”

 - Support Orphan Grain Train with shipping expenses worldwide.
- ✧ Have a State Fair booth and a Sunday Fair worship service
- ✧ Sponsor a four-day bowling tournament
- ✧ Sponsor a one-day golf outing
- ✧ Work jointly with LWML on a three-day retreat in Salina

Be A Shining Light by Pastor Mark Eichler

I don't think the Pastor meant to say it the way it came out, but he referred to a church that he had served as, "It proudly stands as a monument to the faithfulness of God." How much better if he had said, "The church stands as a living witness to the faithfulness of God."

Too often churches, and Christians, become monuments rather than living witnesses. Beginning with real zeal and enthusiasm, churches and Christians who once had a magnetic fellowship and bore an effective witness to the Christian faith, often see that energy and focus wear down. Prayers become perfunctory. Worship becomes automatic. Reaching out to those who are hurting becomes the job of the professional clergy. The Bible becomes more praised than studied. Outreach to the community becomes nil. The danger is that pride of the past can become a substitute for power in the present.

Instead, we return to the cross of Good Friday and the open tomb of Easter to find genuine love in Christ Jesus. We turn to the One whose power, through Word and Sacrament, has called us into this relationship of faith and trust. Knowing how much we are loved by God, we want others to know this Good News, too! It's simply a matter of letting the Light of God that is in us through faith shine through the good works we do. We live as shining lights allowing God to draw others to Himself through us.

The Lutheran Hour Ministries Ambassador

The LHM Ambassador provides an information link between the Int'l Ministry Office in St. Louis, the Pastor and congregation. The Ambassador is a person that has a heart for God's mission to proclaim Christ.

Ambassadors receive a quarterly newsletter, "The Envoy", about ministry initiatives and ways to promote and support the ministry. Ambassadors can visit the web site www.lhm.org/ambassador to receive information on a variety of ministries. Ambassadors may sign up to receive "Encouragement for You" a monthly e-newsletter. The Ambassador may then share the news received with the Pastor and congregation through your churches bulletin and newsletter. Example; Sharing the time and stations for "The Lutheran Hour" in your broadcast area. XM radio, #170, carries the program nationwide at 12 noon, central time, on Sunday.

Les Walter, former President of the KS. District Lutheran Laymen's League, and former board member of the Kansas District-LCMS is the coordinator of our Kansas District Ambassador's. The goal is to have an Ambassador in each of our 164 congregations currently 88, and a Zone Ambassador for each of our 16 zones currently 13. If your congregation does not have an Ambassador and you would like to help with inreach to your congregation, and outreach to your community then please contact Les Walter, 211 N. The ongoing application of God's Word continues to change lives by His Holy Spirit." Lubov Koltsova is enrolled in the BCC out of the Kazakhstan Ministry office, where at the time of the report 677 people were enrolled, states "I am writing to tell you how greatly my life changed after your Bible Correspondence Courses, because I feel a great thirst in knowing God more and more".

Parenting Families - Me to We

A six week DVD series available that is based on concepts that address the incessant power struggles operating within families (ME) and awaken the real strengths of working together (WE). This Parenting Series may be used as an outreach tool in your community. One large congregation in Nebraska had 7 families join the church as a result of attending the sessions.

To encourage usage and make the program trouble free, LHM has put together a kit for congregations. Included are two discs that contain 6 DVD sessions, 50 promo brochures, a 100-count package of invitation postcards, and sample booklets. The current congregation price is $149.00. A congregation may qualify for a discount based on activity with LLL/Lutheran Hour Ministries. To learn about the possibility of a discount, contact: Sandie.Morgan@lhm.org or 1-800-752-9636 ext. 4305.

When these materials were ready for shipment in October 2007 the goal was 100 orders by May 31st. By March 7 130 kits were sent. In Kansas, congregations in Alma, Humboldt, Manhattan, Topeka and Wichita have ordered the materials.

Orphan Grain Train-Activity Year 2007

Shipments sent overseas were 71 containers the size of a semi-load. In response to domestic needs, 83 loads for a total of 154 semi truck size loads shipped from the 18 divisions. Of the 83 loads, 45 went to the Texas border mission ministries of Ysleta and Cornerstone Ranch, 17 loads to the Katrina cleanup, 7 to Native American ministries and to flooded areas in Ohio. In addition to the 154 semi size shipments, 72 trailer and vehicle loads were delivered. With the cost of shipping continuing to rise, many domestic shipments cost $1,500 to $2,000, overseas $7,000 to $10,000 per container depending on location. The National Convention in Norfolk is Sept 19 and 20, 2008 beginning on Friday evening.

Kansas conducts Wisconsin Style Fish Feeds to raise funds for shipping, John White is the coordinator and head master of these feeds. Send donations Care of: John White Address above.

Outreach Training at Int'l Convention

Outreach training for Young Adults, targeting 25 to 35 years old, is being provided by Lutheran Hour Ministries on Saturday July 26th in Lexington, Kentucky. Additional workshops are available that include "Singled Out", "Empowering Your Family to Witness", "Christianity and World Religions" and "Contending for Faith in the 21st Century". These sessions are a part of the International Convention of the Int'l Lutheran Laymen's League, July 24-27 in Lexington.

Young adults with children will be provided with daytime activities for all ages, one of these is a visit to the Creation Museum.

Churches can encourage families to attend by providing $1,200 scholarships that would cover lodging, registration fees, meals and events. For planning and fundraising ideas, visit www.lhm.org/scholarships.htm

New Bible Study Series for Men

Lutheran Hour Ministries is developing an exciting new group Bible study designed to educate and activate men. The absence of active, involved and committed Christian men in our churches is impeding our witness to the world and a key factor in the decline of church membership.

Recent research reveals:

- + When a child leads the way in commitment to a church, 3.5% of families follow.
- + When a woman leads the way in commitment to a church, 17% of families follow.
- + But, when a man leads the way in commitment to a church, 92% of families follow.
- + Also, 42% of American men attended church regularly in 1992. But by 1997, only 28% of American men attend church regularly.

Clearly, without male spiritual involvement families, churches and our witness all suffer. That is why LHM is moving boldly forward with this new outreach to men for release this summer. A $25,000 matching grant has been given by a friend of LHM. You now can have your gift toward this Bible Study doubled up to the value of the $25,000 matching grant. Donations may be marked for this Bible Study and mailed to LHM, 660 Mason Ridge Center Dr., St. Louis, MO. 63141.
