President's Message Tim Voelker

The Gospel reading for a recent Sunday was the parable of the Prodigal Son from Luke 15. It reminded me that there are so many people around the world that God would love to welcome into his loving arms. God is yearning to run to greet them if they would just turn from all the "things" in life that have gotten into the way. This is what Kansas LLL/Lutheran Hour Ministries, by the grace of God, is working to accomplish. We are working to get the Good News of Salvation to people here at home and to people around the world. We want all to hear the Word of God so they can "turn" or "return" to the loving arms of the Lord.

You are a partner with us in this mission. Thanks to all of you that contributed with you prayers, your time and your treasure. I hope all of you continue as sponsors of Lutheran Hour Ministries. The Kansas LLL/Lutheran Hour Ministries District Project also needs the support of groups and individuals to reach its many goals of ministry. We praise God for all of the groups and individuals that contribute to the District Project. If you are among those that have not contributed to the District Project, please prayerfully consider supporting this important avenue for spreading God's Word.

Thinking back to the parable of the Prodigal Son, I think each of us is guilty of playing the part of the Prodigal Son. God provides us with everything we need, but we are not content. We want more. We go chasing after many things of this world. Our priorities seem to get all turned around. Think about all we spend on the "things" of this world. God has blessed us so richly, but we run from Him. We do what we what to do. Yes, we all are Prodigal Sons. Think of the ministry that could be done if we would contribute even a portion of the money we spent on those items and things we "must have" and events we "have to" attend.

Praise be to God that he is so loving that even when we are the Prodigal Son he waits with open arms ready to forgive us. Please challenge yourself to do all that you can to allow the Lord to work through you and your gifts to help reconcile all the Prodigal Sons of the world with their Loving Savior. Lutheran Hour Ministries and the District Project are excellent avenues to do just that. There are so many that need to hear the Word of God so that they too can join in God's everlasting celebration in heaven. May God bless all of us. Tim Voelker

Sent John 20:21

Lutheran Hour Ministries has the best outreach information and it's getting better. The Bible is very clear that all God's people have been sent and are responsible to tell others about Jesus. In Acts 8 Saul ravages the church, scattering the believers except the Apostles who stayed in Jerusalem. These scattered believers spoke the Gospel to everyone.

All baptized believers, including you and I, are gifted by the Holy Spirit to accomplish God's purposes in His local church. See 1 Corinthians 12, Romans 12, Ephesians 4:11-12, and 1 Peter 4 for scriptural explanation of spiritual gifts that produce fruit of the spirit Galatians 5:22-23.

The six session video Bible Study by Rev. Dr. Joel Biermann, titled "Who Am I? What Am I Doing Here?", addresses this topic and is thought provoking and well done. In it he points out that "telling people about Jesus" is a Christian's responsibility not an option. View the six, under 15 minutes each, sessions at: <https://vimeo.com/album/2211431>

From the Regions

Region 1 Zone 3: Hope—Shawnee It can happen at a family dinner or company meeting; in a coffee shop or coffee-break room, while exercising in a gym or chatting on the phone—suddenly, a casual conversation turns serious, and the person with whom you are talking zaps you with one of those “difficult questions”—the kind that get down to the basics of your Christian faith.

Why do you believe in God? Did God make the world? What makes you think you will go to heaven? Why do you believe the Bible? Why does God allow bad things to happen? These are a sampling of the kind of questions that Sarah Guldalian, a presenter from Lutheran Hour Ministries, made on Jan. 30, 2016, at Hope Lutheran Church, Shawnee, Kan., with a program from Mission U, a personal witness training program, entitled MU-201-Equipping to Share: Tough Questions. Attending were members of Hope, neighboring congregations, and more distant churches in Kansas and Missouri.

Time was spent in learning how to get to the root of these tough questions, as well as how to give sensitive and relevant answers that “bridge” on to the Gospel. Time was provided for those attending to share personal experiences, with a number of moving stories recounted. The emphasis was upon how each of those in attendance could use these tough questions as opportunities for Christian witness.

This program is part of a series of five Mission U programs that seek to help each of us grow in our role as one of God’s chosen ambassadors, better able to carry God’s message of hope and salvation into a world urgently in need of good news. The emphasis is upon everyday evangelism, reflecting the everyday opportunities for sharing the Good News of the Gospel that God puts in our way.

Mission U can be used by both adults and high school youth. Other congregations in the Kansas District are encouraged to make use of this excellent Lutheran Hour Ministries resource to help their members become better equipped to share their faith in everyday life-- through ordinary conversations at work, with family members, over the back-yard fence, or on a cell phone. May God lead us all to be better equipped to seize the opportunities he gives us daily for passing on the good news of his saving love to others.

I personally hope and pray that my congregation will sponsor more of these Mission U workshops, and will encourage those not in attendance this time to be there for future presentations.

Region 3 Zone 7: St. Paul—Clay Center is excited to be partnering with Lutheran Hour Ministries again this spring to present Mission U 102 on Saturday, April 9 from 9am to 2pm. Our presenter, Pastor Mark Frith, LHM Program Director, Outreach Initiative, will lead us through the Mission U 102 Course. MU-102 – Equipping to Share: Stories and Styles, identifies, examines, and applies seven different evangelistic styles. Students will learn to identify an effective witnessing style as they encounter unique individuals and scenarios. Each student will pinpoint his or her natural style and discover applicable secondary styles in order to develop each.

This course and continuing education is free of charge to all who attend. A lunch will be provided with a free will donation accepted.

To enroll in Mission U 102 at St. Paul you can go to our website, www.claycenterlutheran.com, click on the Mission U button and follow the instructions. You may also sign up by email at ccmissionu@yahoo.com. Please don't wait till the last minute. Materials need to be printed and food needs to be made.

More information about the LHM Mission U Program can be found online at www.claycenterlutheran.com or contact Allen Hamel at 632-4515 or ccmissionu@yahoo.com with questions.

Region 4 Zone 15: The Zone 15 Leadership team has been having “Pflowers for Jesus” gatherings these past few months at Colby College to pray, praise, ponder and plan to do our work in a “more excellent way”.

We are pondering how to place a Project Connect display in the Colby College Student Union. The challenge we face is how to fund the purchase and keep it stocked for maximum help to students.

Our zone rally is scheduled for April 2 at Kensington. President Lange is to be our special presenter. An in gathering for Orphan Grain Train will be part of the event.

The zone chair and any other zone leaders that want to assist are conducting WEWA (Week End with Ambassadors) Events that are visits to congregations in the zone/circuit to recruit ambassadors-two in each congregation, and invite members to become LHM supporters. Also encourage the congregation to have an “affiliate group” involving men. At this time two visits have been made with more to come later this spring.

Our long range goals are: Two ambassadors in each congregation; Have an affiliate group in each congregation with men heavily involved; Strive to have to have at least 10% of family units support LHM financially; and Encourage each pastor in the zone/circuit to be a prayer and financial supporter of LHM.

Members of the zone leadership team conduct and annual visit to each congregation to inform, encourage use of LHM resources and support LHM financially so we can better “Bring Christ to the Nations, and the Nations to the Church.”

Thanks from Students

I praise God for the financial aid you have given me. I am thrilled to be attending Concoria Nebraska. Thank you!

Thank you very much for your continued support as I learn how to better serve God and others and to teach His children.

I greatly and deeply appreciate your support. I can't wait to see what God has in store!

Christian Lesson

From: On This Day. A Guide to Spiritual Lessons from Christian History. Spiritual and political apathy is endemic in the Church. Currently only about 50 percent of Christians in America are registered to vote. Less than 50 percent of those registered even bother to vote. This means that only 25 percent of eligible Christians vote in elections, even if there is an issue critical to the church and the morality of our culture. We allow a minority of people to decide critical issues in our cities, counties, state and nation.

Winning Souls

In 1937, Pastor L. Meyer emphasized each person's duty to share the Gospel: "What have you as a layman done to prove to the world that your faith is a moving, living faith? What have you done to bring the Good News of salvation to the world? How many of you claim the distinction of having the means of winning one soul during the past year?"

LLL/LHM Supporter Thanks!
